DJ crew bio

Soniie Forsyte (DJ)/ Oktarin (producer)

Real name: Blaž Branc

A music producer decides to become a DJ for a very obvious reason: the need to get unbiased feedback. And so Oktarin, at the time going by the name Tyler Vaughn, gets introduced to the new Pioneer CDJ MKII digital turntables by drum 'n bass DJ Yakamashi in 2005.

Musically speaking Soniie set out as a house music DJ and remains faithful to the love of house to this day. In 2009 he discovers that there is more to music than just house, so he starts to build a library of music for after parties, ranging from broken beat, funk, retro swing to jazz and soul in general.

In 2009 he teams-up with EL DIABLO to form HOT CUES crew.

Today he declares himself as a house DJ for the clubs and all-that-jazz DJ for bars, business events and other light situations.

El Diablo

Real name: Grega Jelar

in love with music. finding delicious and forgotten tracks and playin it to people in clubs and parties. when djing always funky. into producing music.

so fresh. so clean.

respecting the wisdom and knowledge of my family and people around me.

giving honest opinion when asked.

my mind is trembling in happiness.

spread the word that the heat is on!

Hot cues

Hot cues crew is formed in 2009 by DJs EL DIABLO and Soniie Forsyte. EL DIABLO and Soniie find super-strenght and enthusiasm as they release their first studio DJ mix Swing! in May 2010. Swing swings across the globe, reaching over 10.000 downloads in just a few months.

Also in 2010 crew extends its musical repertoire further beyond house music, getting involved in nusoul, nujazz, funk and disco music, especially selected for warm-ups and business events. Hot cues are hot and on cue.
